Bromelkamp Company LLC: First Class Foundation Software and Service

Minneapolis, MN; June 30, 2017: As a leading provider of installed and online grants management software solutions, Bromelkamp Company continuously delivers on its promise to stay connected to the field of grantmaking, committed to excellent service, and provide creative technology solutions. Through regular communication and networking sessions, Bromelkamp’s team stays aware of best practices and identifies opportunities to improve function to meet the needs of clients. With nearly 40 years of experience, Bromelkamp Company maintains its leadership in the field by employing experienced professionals from philanthropy, nonprofit, and technology sectors. With two recent additions to the team, Bromelkamp Company continues its mission to stay connected, committed, and creative.

The newest member of the team is Ben Cantlon, who joined Bromelkamp Company in May 2017. As Chief Product Officer, Ben is charged with ensuring that the company’s software maintains an edge above its competitors, while also ensuring that the software needs of existing clients are met with current functionality. Ben brings a wealth of experience to the team, having worked for software startups and technology companies his entire career. Ben holds degrees in computer science and history from Oberlin College, and lives in South Minneapolis with his wife and two daughters.

Maddie Hallberg joined the Bromelkamp team in April 2017. As Sales and Marketing Associate, Maddie ensures that our presence is represented in social media realms, conferences, our website, and through promotional materials. Maddie has a professional background in customer service, and is excited to assist our clients in staying organized and maximizing their potential to fulfill their missions. When not at work, Maddie plays/practices classical piano and enjoys cooking, traveling, being outside, and spending time with family. Her other interests include craft and heritage preservation, interior design and sustainable fashion. Acting further on her deep commitment to helping others, Maddie volunteers with a fair trade jewelry company and at a residence for refugee/asylee women.
